

Notre Dame: Explore the newly restored Cathedral of Paris. Learn of Saint Joan of Arc's history here.

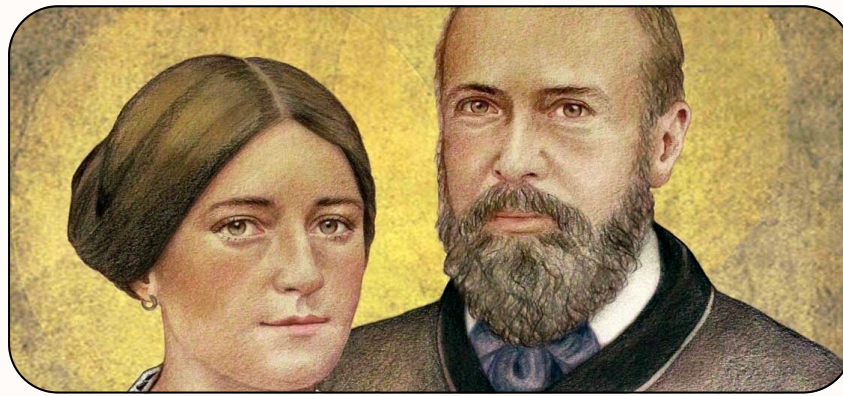

Chapel of the Miraculous Medal: A Marian Apparition site that also has the relics of Saint Vincent de Paul.

Sacré Coeur: Stay the night at this basilica, and participate in adoration with the sisters.

Martyrs of the French Revolution: Ask these martyred priests what it means to give everything for your vocation.

Alençon: Visit the home of Saints Louis and Zélie Martin. Learn of their confusion over their vocation to marriage.

Lisieux: Venerate Saint Thérèse of Lisieux's relics in the Carmel that she fought to enter to fulfil her vocation.

Paray-le-Monial: Return love for love, in the apparition site where Jesus revealed His Sacred Heart to the world.

Ars: Visit the humble home of Saint John Vianney, go to confession, and pray with the incorrupt body of the Curé of Ars who helped thousands to come back to Christ.

Meet the Guide

Hava

Meet Havilah,
You can call her Hava for short. She is a wife and mother of four children. Born in the USA, she is a world traveler who has lived in Paris for almost 20 years.

She is unapologetically Catholic. She studied at Ave Maria College, and considered entering religious life as a Missionary of Charity but heard God's call to married life.

Today she sings loudly at Mass, collects Saint pins for her jean jacket, embroiders Sacred Heart patches, and praises God when she stubs a toe.

Since 2012, she has worked as a guide in France, sharing its profound history and beauty with English-speaking travelers.

In 2020, she heard a new call to lead Catholic pilgrimages and answered it by founding Blue Mantle Catholic Tours and Pilgrimages.

She works with religious orders in France, organizing all housing and meals with them (when possible), booking the private coaches, and leading the pilgrimages herself.
