

Meet the Guide

Havilah

Meet Havilah, You can call her Hava for short. She is a wife and mother of four children. Born in the USA, she is a world traveler who has lived in Paris for almost 20 years.

She is unapologetically Catholic. She studied at Ave Maria College, sings loudly during Mass, collects Saint pins for her jean jacket, embroiders Sacred Heart patches, and praises God when she stubs a toe.

Since 2012, she has worked as a guide in France, sharing the profound history of this beautiful country and its inhabitants with English-speaking travelers.

In 2020, she heard a call to lead Catholic pilgrimages and answered it by founding Blue Mantle Catholic Tours and Pilgrimages.

She works with religious orders in France, organizing all housing and meals with them (when possible), booking the private coaches, and leading the pilgrimages herself.

How to get started:

- Pray about it. Ask God if He is calling you to do a pilgrimage in France.
- Once you are sure you are being called to pilgrimage, contact Hava, who will help you organize it. Her contact details are below.
